Voters Buck Some State Trends

Andover voters had some winners in close races in Tuesday's surprising primary election.

But the 5,911 voters who turned out under perfect weather conditions, chose Avi Nelson as the Republican nominee for U. S. Senate and Gov. Michael Dukakis for a return to office, while the majority of the state selected their opponents, Sen. Edward W. Brooke and former Massport Director Edward J. King for the Democratic nomination as governor.

The King nomination statewide was considered an upset. Brooke's win was somewhat anticipated, but the closeness of the vote was surprising.

The Andover turnout was considered poor, due to the number of contests on the two party ballots as well as the weather conditions.

The totals were posted shortly after 10:30 p.m. two and a half hours after the polls closed, with the punch card ballots being processed rapidly. Town Clerk

Elden R. Salter said no problems were encountered throughout the day and the processing of the ballots went smoothly with only five "defective" ballots having to be hand-counted. "Defective" ballots are those which the computer fails to process due to defects, either in the punching, or the marking of two candidates for a single office.

Nelson captured the Andover

The Cycling Habit

Rev. Richard Foley, OSA, of St. Augustine's parish gives a few honks on the bicycle at the start of the St. Augustine's Bike-A-thon held Sunday by youth groups of the parish to benefit the Genesis fund used to assist spiritual and social activities and community services.

A Variety Of Issues Face Meeting

Mosquitoes, water mains for Shawsheen, purchasing computer equipment, rezoning for proposed use of the Abbot Academy campus, will be among the highlights of an over 25-article warrant facing voters at the Oct. 30 town meeting.

There are 28 articles, some of them submitted by private citizens, which must be reviewed by the board of registrars, before the warrant is officially drawn up. The number, plus the issues to be acted upon, indicate that the October session may go two nights at least before completion.

Expected to draw most of the interest are the articles dealing with mosquito control, submitted by private citizens and town articles asking $456,350 for purchase of data processing systems for the town and school department; $510,000 for replacement of water mains in Shawsheen and rezoning of the Abbot Academy property to allow development of retirement complex by Life-Care services of Iowa.

There will also be some bylaw provisions dealing with the stabling of horses and a noise bylaw.

Increasing the zoning board of appeals from its present three to five members, with two alternates, will also be presented for voter consideration.

There will be two articles dealing with mosquito control, one seeking $3,000 for the town to undertake a preliminary program, the other to commit the town to a three year program to be conducted by the Essex County Mosquito Control project.

The funds requested for computer purchase is a decision by town officials to go the outright purchase route, rather than a lease purchase agreement.

Under the lease-purchase plan the town would pay nine per cent interest over a period of time, while the direct purchase would save an estimated $25,000.

The Shawsheen water mains is to provide relief for residents there who have been plagued with dirty water for over a year and a half. Efforts to resolve the problem through other means has not been as successful as anticipated.

The zoning bylaw change for Abbot campus is to provide regulation of a complex which offers residence to retired persons and also has a nursing home as part of the total facility.

Selectmen have also inserted an article in the warrant at the suggestion of Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark to have the town's apportionment of the cost of the Essex Agricultural Institute placed on the same formula as the vocational school contribution. This would be done through placing a bill before the legislature by the local state representative.

A summary of the town meeting articles being reviewed for inclusion in the warrant:

Parade bylaw.

$30,000 redesign and plan Elm Square.

Authorize conducting of an annual town audit.

$456,350 for purchase of computer.

$10,000 improvements for Castle Heights Road and Joyce Terrace.

Appointment of a commuter rail study committee.

$510,000 Shawsheen water lines.

$.320 supplement for the solid waste funds.

Noise bylaw.

Disposition of Title II funds.

The head is not a score, just an attempt to get attention to the fact that the Free Christian Church is receiving numerous calls which are directed to the school department.

The new general school department telephone number is 470-1700 which connects all departments in Andover public schools.

The number for Free Church is 475-1700 and is apparently being dialed more frequently due to the new school department number.

Elm Street Reconstruction Continues

Reconstruction of Elm street continues, with anticipated completion due sometime in late October or early November.

Contractors have been testing the new water lines installed on the roadway and will be making house connections and continuing installation of curbing prior to the topping from Wilson's Corner to Washington Avenue.

The state is funding the project and the street will be turned over to the town at completion.

Selectmen Meet Monday

Selectmen will meet in regular session Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the meeting room at Memorial Hall library.

Recycling Calendars Are Mailed

New blue-gray Recycling Calendars for the remainder of 1978 and the first six months of 1979 have been mailed this week to all residents of Andover. Also included in the mailing is a turquoise information sheet regarding procedures for regular refuse collection as well as recyclables. Several changes should be noted.

1. Corrugated cardboard is no longer being recycled with newspapers. The pickup cost of this item is not worthwhile at this time.

2. Recyclables must be on the curbside for pickup at 7:30 a.m. instead of 8 a.m.

3. The former landfill site in West Andover is no longer available for recyclables (newspaper, glass, and cans). Vandalism and the high cost of transporting the materials from this site have forced this decision.

4. The new recycling contractor is Nabydowski Brothers, an Andover contractor determined to provide better service than the town has had in the past.

The Recycling Committee feels these changes will provide a more efficient program this year and encourages all townspeople to participate.

Survey On Display At Library

Andover's Historic Building Survey, conducted by the Andover Historical Commission, is now on display at the Memorial Hall Library. Homeowners and interested citizens are invited to examine the fifteen-volume work and are encouraged to review the information contained therein for accuracy.

The volumes which provide statistics and pictures of over 800 historically significant Andover homes and buildings have been added to the reference collection in the Library and will be available for inspection indefinitely by contacting the Reference Librarian.

Music Society Begins Season

The Andover Chamber Music Society begins its '78-'79 season on Wednesday evening, Sept. 27, at Graves Hall on the Phillips Academy campus.

The Society presents an opportunity for adults and students from all schools to spend an hour a week playing fine music written for small ensembles.

A large and enthusiastic staff of professional music teachers are prepared to coach and join with the members of the numerous ensembles.

Although the program is not equipped to accommodate beginners there are many opportunities for the not too advanced as well as the very talented. After the level of experience of each individual is determined, he/she is placed in an ensemble with others of similar ability.

Many people are misinformed about the scope of chamber music. It is by no means limited to string quartets. There is excellent music for all of the orchestral instruments as well as recorder and classical guitar. Keyboard opportunities are unlimited, and there are exciting works in the library that call for vocal soloists. Here too is an opportunity to improve sight reading and sense of ensemble.

Informal performances and playing classes are used to entertain within the group, and to strengthen ones ability to play in public. No one is ever forced to perform if it is unnerving, but the atmosphere is so informal that most members find that they enjoy preparing something for the others to hear.

The Chamber Music Society is part of the Andover Department of Community Services and Phillips Academy Evening Study Program. For registration details and fees we suggest you check their detailed pamphlet. Late registrants should call The Andover Evening Study Program between 8:30 and 4:30 for information about registration and fees.

New members of the society will be asked to play 32 bars (more or less) or some work they know and like. This simple,

Participates In Trade Mission

David W. Davis, executive director of the Massachusetts Port Authority has announced that Davis and Furber Machine Co., North Andover, was one of six Massachusetts companies selected to participate in a trade mission to West Germany, Sept. 9-17, as part of the Authority's unique Small Business Export Program.

James J. Falls, international marketing manager, will represent the company which is a manufacturer of textile machinery.

Commenting on his company's selection, Mr. Falls said, "We are very pleased to be selected for the Massport program. I have looked for some time at the market potential for our products in West Germany; however, until this point I have felt it would be very difficult to penetrate this market on our own. The Massport program is providing us with that opportunity, and the timing is perfect."

The price-performance relationship of our non-woven, high pile and fiber blending systems is excellent in the U.S. The current dollar devaluation against the Deutsch mark, combined with our new technology and the high quality of our products give us a real opportunity to sell in West Germany."

The Small Business Export Program was established by Massport in conjunction with the Small Business Association of New England (SBANE) to assist small business manufacturers in developing foreign markets for their products.

Since its inception last summer, more than 800 Massachusetts companies have applied to participate.

At a recent pre-mission briefing held at Massport headquarters, William F. Tobin, marketing and development director of the Port Authority, told the companies that they would be taking part in the third such trade mission arranged by Massport since the program was started last year.

Beyond providing such technical and professional assistance and making appointments for trade mission participants to meet potential buyers, distributors, sales representatives and prospective customers, the pioneering program also offers assistance in the form of interest-free loans to help individual participants finance a portion of their expenses on their overseas mission.

Adventures In Music Program Set

A brand new musical about a bionic pupped named Pinocchio: the world premier of a puppet show about Don Quixote, an illustrated concert featuring the story of Babar the Elephant and a children's participation concert, including the theme and dance from Star Wars and a New England summer outing are scheduled as the four Adventures in Music concerts for the coming year.

held at the Oct. 3 meeting. Nominations for any office is open to all members of the association. The association meets on the first Tuesday of each month and many special meetings are called as needed.

A bowling league has been organized under the direction of Louise Elliott and the bowling takes place every Wednesday with 20 to 25 members participating. Cook-outs and special suppers are regular activities in Frye Circle. Bingo is held every Thursday evening under the direction of Irene Holden.

The Sun Shine program is handled by Evelyn Berg. This program involves sending cards and gifts to Association members confined in a hospital.

The officers of the Association are: John B. McAllister, president; Evelyn Berg, vice president; Irene Holden, treasurer; Louise Elliott, secretary; Alice Morgan, Evelyn Berg and Dorothy Gilbreath, pianists.

History Play To Be Repeated

A special performance of "Starting from Scratch," the light-hearted musical based on the early days of Andover and North Andover, will be given for the Historical Societies of the two communities Sunday evening at 7:30 p.m. in the North Parish Church Assembly Hall, Old North Andover Center.

Although primarily pure entertainment, the musical has a great deal to add to the knowledge of Andover during its earliest days. It was written and produced by a resident whose family dates back 330 years in local history, and is based on available writings and on records of the incorporation era.

With the use of costume additions and props from actors' trunks on stage, members of the chorus transform their characters into several roles, such as founding father, a hungry wolf, a settler's wife, a native Indian and a stuffy Englishman.

The acting company consists of 18 children aged 6 to 10. They rehearsed the play five mornings a week during July and August, and gave four performances last month.

The play includes eight musical numbers.

P.A. Begins Third Century

Phillips Academy entered its third century of education in Andover Thursday, as 1,110 students went to their first classes of the Academy's 201st year. The school established here in 1778 with 13 boys now serves 677 boys and 433 girls. They come from nearly every state in the Union and many foreign countries, but 192 of them are day students living in the Greater Lawrence area.

Forty-eight Andover and North Andover residents are among the 435 new students matriculating. They had to compete for admission among an applicant pool of 2,601 candidates. The new students arrived on campus last Saturday for orientation. The Blue Key seniors, a student leader group, welcomed them and led them through three days of ropes courses, rappelling and rock climbing at Den Rock, theatre games and other exercises designed to make them feel at home on their new campus and the town of Andover.

They also met with their academic advisor and had a chance to find their way around downtown Andover between appointments.

The bulk of "old" Andover students arrived Monday. By Wednesday the "shakedown" period was over.

At Arena Day, Wednesday, all students signed up for their required and elective courses from the academy's 294-course curriculum. On Thursday, classes and athletic commitments began in earnest for the 201st academic year.

Following are the freshman day students from the Andover-North Andover area:

Connor, 22 Mohawk Road, Andover; Peter Hartmann Crabtree, son of Douglas E. Crabtree, 143 Main St., Andover.

Republican vote but not by much, topping Brooke here, 1,184 to 1,161. Dukakis, on the other hand, held a wider margin over King here, with a 1,742 to 1,479 plurality. Barbara Ackerman received 195 Andover democrat votes.

Andover Democrats selected winners in the U. S. Senate and Congress races.

Congressman Paul Tsongas, eventually winner in the race for the senate nomination received strong endorsement from his Andover constituency, with 2,334 votes. Sec. of State Paul Gizzi had 366 votes, followed by Howard Phillips, 323, Kathleen Sullivan Allito, 260 and Elaine Noble, 119.

Lawrence Atty. James Shannon, the winner of the contest to be the Democratic nominee to fill the Tsongas congressional vacancy, also had strong endorsement here, with 1,465 votes. Robert Hatem, former vice president development at Merrimack College, was second in Andover with 664.

On the Republican side, Shannon will be faced by Middlesex County Sheriff John J. Buckley, who has successful in his bid for the Republican nomination. In Andover and Greater Lawrence areas, Buckley was topped by Andover psychiatrist, Dr. Nicholas D. Rizzo. Rizzo's Andover vote was 1,649 to Buckley's 606.

Andover Republicans chose the state-wide winners of the contest for nomination as governor and lieutenant governor, giving Frank Hatch of Beverly 1,331 votes to Edward F. King's 931 and William Cowin 1315 for Lt. governor against 683 for Peter L. McDowell.

In the First Essex and Middlesex state senate race, Republicans selected State Rep. Robert Buell of Boxford over Nicholas Barletta of Rockport. Buell had 602 Andover votes to Barletta's 182.

On the Democrat side, former Selectman Robert Cain got the endorsement over three other candidates. Cain's Andover vote was 339, while Joseph V. Gracy of North Reading had 216; Regina Villa of Manchester, 206 and Paul Jackman of Topsfield, 87.

The senate seat is being vacated by Sen. William Saltonstall.

In county offices, Andover voters endorsed what could be considered 'local' candidates, only one of whom was successful when all the Essex County towns and cities were tabulated.

District Atty. John P. S. Burke lost out on his bid for re-election to Kevin Burke of Lynn, although the present D.A., a Lawrence resident took Andover by a wide margin.

Atty. John Burke of Lawrence, seeking the register of probate post, had a solid Andover vote of 1,522, and was the eventual winner there.

County Commissioner Edward Cahill was re-elected to that post while Andover Democrats gave their endorsement to Selectman Joseph Guthrie of North Andover, 1,649 to 532 for Cahill.

Former Mayor John J. Buckley of Lawrence received 1,360 Andover votes in his bid to become county treasurer, but lost out to Katherine B. O'Leary who was the winner county-wide.

Honeybees

There were no honeybees in North America until the early 1600s when Europeans brought them for honey production. Butterflies, moths, bumblebees and other insects had pollinated crops, Massachusetts Audubon says. Now 80 percent of all pollination is provided by honeybees.

THE TOWNSMAN, SEPTEMBER 21, 1978

Most banks design their services to fit most of the people most of the time. You make due. Most the time, we don't. We design them for you. We fit them to your future.

Start small with a simple savings account. Now add a NOW Account. Later, a loan. Pay By Phone.

A mortgage, maybe. And, then a baby. With a little savings account of his or her own.

Before you know it, you're not only a parent, you're a grandparent.

How fast they grow. It's funny.

At LSB, so does your money.

LSB Regular Savings

It's putting a little away for a lot of different reasons. The difference with us is, we understand you want your savings plan to be different, because everybody's needs are different.

LSB Savings Certificates.

A way to save a lot more and earn a lot more for it. Our new eight year 8% Certificate almost doubles your money. 8% for an effective annual yield of 8.45%. $1,913.44 back in eight years for $1,000 in now. $1,000 minimum. Federal regulations provide for a substantial penalty on early withdrawals.

NOW Accounts/NOW power.

Our free checking account that pays you 5% and, now, lets you write out emergency checks for more than you've got in your account. It's saving, checking and, now, bargain shopping made better.

LSB Personal Loans.

The loans that can help you grow. Buy now before you have to pay more later. Loans at a rate so low they don't seem to linger.

LSB Pay By Phone.

One trip to LSB, sign up once and pay your bills.

LSB Mortgages.

Every time we write a mortgage we feel like a friend of the family. Usually, we get to be. We watch the family grow bigger and the house grow better. Growing a lot by owing a little. At LSB that's what a savings bank's for.

LSB Life Insurance.

SBLI life insurance. People overlook it a lot which is too bad because; it costs a lot less.

Spanish Students Win Local Hearts

Little did they know when they agreed to participate in the American Institute for Foreign Study, that it might become a full long-term commitment.

But many of the 40 families who played host to Spanish students for four weeks this summer are already making plans for future trans-Atlantic get-togethers.

According to Sue Stephens, AIFS coordinator here, most of the families want to be host again next year to the youths who spend their mornings in a study program at Phillips Academy.

At least two of the host families are already planning trips to Spain next spring to visit their host sons or daughters, and some of their own youngsters are planning to go abroad on AIFS programs next year. And the feeling seems to be mutual.

Mrs. Stephens reports that a number of the Spanish students are planning to come back to Andover at Christmastime.

This was her first year at coordinating the Institute, and Mrs. Stephens, a former English and reading teacher at Brooks School, says she'll do it again.

She would prefer hosting Spanish students again, because she adheres to the philosophy of getting to know one country really well. There are a lot of cultural differences, she says, and it takes a while to adjust. Next year they could benefit from this year's experiences.

For instance, she says, one of the adjustments the students and host families had to make was in meal schedules.

In Spain, they don't eat dinner until 10 at night, whereas most families here eat earlier in the evening and are ready to go to bed at 10.

After morning classes, the students and host families too were offered a variety of field trips to the museums, historical spots, beaches and the like in the Boston area.

While the host families generally feel they benefited from the cultural exchange, and that they learned a great deal about Spain's culture and history, economy, meals, and all, some feel their rewards were even more far-reaching.

Pat O'Neil, 49 Summer St., feels their relationship with host son Sebastian has brought the O'Neils closer together as a family, and that he has stimulated them to learn more about their own history and surroundings here.

Jo Coombs, 3 Sheffield Cir., plans to transfer the summer experience to one she has coming up. She'll be traveling to Central America with a study group from West Parish Church this fall, and thinks having been a host here will help her better relate to her hosts there. She says she'll also be looking for the Spanish influence in Central America.

When Mrs. Stephens polled the students, who hailed mostly from Madrid and Bilbao, she found they were happy to have some misconceptions set straight.

Juan Luis Portillo found that people are much nicer here and that life is more peaceful than what he had learned from American movies. Alfonso Pena said he'd heard there were a lot of thieves, "and I haven't seen any of them. I learned that Americans were not very disciplined and they are. They also said Americans are not very hospitable, and they are."

Dolores Lasterra was surprised that "you don't look like Americans." Most of the students expected Americans to be tall, blonde, blue-eyed and fair.

The students found less "nightlife" here and Marco Hohenloke said that in Spain, they don't go to bed until 3 to 3:30 a.m.

Sol Correa was most interested that Americans don't seem to mind that other people think about them.

"They do whatever they want without thinking about what other people will say," he said.

"Americans like to be comfortable, they are often and they are sincere," added

Alvaro Obando.

Marco also found life much "faster" here, and Joaquin DelPino noted that each member of the family in America seems to have a "job" at home. "That is not very usual in Spain," he said. Joaquin Mendes added that in Spain they don't work until they're 20 or 21 years old.

As for American foods, the students without exception went for McDonald's hamburgers and pizza, but disliked peanut butter and American salad dressing that contained any sugar or salt.

It also took some getting used to eating sandwiches and other foods. In Spain, everything is eaten with the knife and fork.

Andover High Notebook

By Renee Pruneau

The first full week of school has proved to be a busy one at Andover High. Sophomores have been getting adjusted to their new climate, getting used to the added homework load and finding their way around the school. Juniors and Seniors have been trying to adjust to the old schedule, left behind in June. Many of the clubs and activities held their first meetings last week, if it was any indication of the year ahead it seems that A.H.S. will have a fantastic 78-79, full of pep and enthusiasm.

The 1978-79 yearbook has started its massive advertising campaign headed by Diane Clendennial, editor and Rebecca Weiner, assistant editor. All of the yearbook editors attended a seminar Wednesday to help orient them with the procedures of compiling a yearbook. During the day they also decided on the theme, which will remain a secret until May and exactly what will appear on each page. A lot of work was accomplished and it looks like this yearbook will be a very successful one.

The student advisory council has also been very active during this first week of school. They, along with Junior and Senior class officers, helped with orientation day for sophomores, which proved most helpful. They also conducted the recent homeroom representative elections for juniors and seniors. Sophomores elections will be held in October when the students are better acquainted. They are presently working on the open ends program. This allows seniors who have met the grade and behavior requirements to either leave school early or come in late, depending on when their free periods are.

The regional student advisory council delegates attended their first meeting Tuesday, Sept. 12. R.S.A.C. is a state required council made-up of elected students from, public, private, and vocational schools all over the state. Eleven regions have been set-up in Massachusetts. Andover is in the Northeast A region.

Problems that exist in the schools and how to solve them are discussed at these meetings. A project is voted upon which will be worked on all year. This year the council's project is entitled "How to Improve School Environment". The council will focus their attention on such things as guidance and counseling, vandalism in schools and the basic skills tests which are now a state requirement. AHS RSAC delegates are Bill Eaton and Renee Pruneau, Alternate. The Student Advisory Council includes, Ann Moriarty, chairman, Camie Mirisola, secretary, Diane Clendennial, Pat Canavan and Peter Newton.

Visible Camels

Camels — hard to see in the dark — have caused so many night-time automobile accidents in the Middle East that all camel owners are now required to purchase phosphorescent harnesses for their animals, says the Auto Club of Merrimack Valley, local affiliate of the AAA.

'Phone Book' Has New Features

The Lawrence area telephone directory is going to be thinner and easier to handle in spite of the new consumer-related features found tucked inside.

About 81,500 copies of the Lawrence directory will be delivered beginning Sept. 21. The book contains listings for customers in Lawrence, Andover, North Andover, Methuen and Salem, N.H. and has a fall foliage scene on the cover.

Found in the introductory pages is a helpful guide for telephone users. It contains a list of agencies and services available to help consumers in the area.

The special two-page guide is called "A Self Help Guide to Consumer Problems." It was prepared by Secretary of Consumer Affairs Christine Sullivan's office in cooperation with New England Telephone officials.

Margaret Carrington, local business office manager, said the directory also contains information of how to deal with the telephone company on particular matters that are of importance to customers. It explains what customers' rights and responsibilities are, and includes a general description of available services and equipment.

Customers will notice another change in the format of the new directory. The white pages will contain five columns of listings on each page instead of four as in the past. This step has been taken by the company to try and keep directory production costs at a reasonable level by reducing the amount of paper needed to publish a directory.

Carrington said that "the additional listings per page and the reduced number of pages also cut down on page-flipping and consequently help to reduce the time needed to find a name and number."

Although the same number of listings appears in each column, the type has been photographically compressed from left to right to fit an additional column on each page. Carrington said that many other directories in New England, including the Boston area white pages, use this format, and studies show that the process does not alter readability.

Carrington also said there is a need to conserve paper due to a recent strike in the paper industry. This crisis in the industry has caused a paper shortage and has forced the company to reduce its paper usage by 25-30 per cent.

"For this reason," Carrington said, "the company has been forced to discontinue the extra copy service it has provided in the past. Only one copy of the new directory will be delivered to each household. An additional copy will be available if there is a critical need."

This year is the 100th anniversary of the first New England Telephone directory which was issued in Boston and contained 67 listings.

More than 3 million listings were carried in last year's set of the most popular reference books in New England.

Telephone directories are updated on a daily basis, year round, by a staff of employees at New England Telephone's directory center in Lynn.

Service representatives in New England Telephone's business offices obtain information from resident and business customers that later becomes part of the White Pages of a directory.

This information is transmitted to the directory department where clerical personnel take special care that these changes and additions are made correctly.

Today's directory includes information such as time zones and zip codes, and guidelines for dealing with annoyance callers.

Area telephone numbers can be obtained fastest by looking in the fully indexed directory. Yet many unnecessary calls are made each day for directory assistance.

Since the beginning of 1977 New England Telephone has begun charging for directory assistance calls in Vermont, in excess of a 3-call allowance. Studies show a small

The Boston Zoological Society (BZS) and the MDC have begun building a new zoo for Boston, but they haven't forgotten the Victorian heritage of their Franklin Park home. To celebrate the coming of autumn and the rich heritage of Franklin Park and the Franklin Park Zoo, the BZS and the New England AFLA are sponsoring a day of "Dueling in the Park" at the Franklin Park Zoo.

"Dueling in the Park" will be an afternoon of outdoor fencing by New England's finest foil, epee and saber fencers on the main Greeting outside the Children's Zoo, beginning at noon on Sunday, Sept. 24. Will Weber, one of New England's premier epee fencers, will moderate the event and explain the scoring and weapons to the public.

Let's Talk About Vitamins...

Ideally, all vitamins, minerals and nutrients should be obtained from our food. This was possible 100 or even 50 years ago when foods were grown in fertile soil and unprocessed. But today when soils are depleted, foods are loaded with residues from toxic sprays and chemicals. When the nutritional value of virtually all foods is drastically lowered by food processing, the addition of vitamins to the diet becomes vitally important.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Maloney

Maloney - LaRoche

Catherine Ann LaRoche, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond LaRoche, 11 Stinson Road, Andover, became the bride August 19 of William Augustine Maloney, also of Andover.

The bride is the granddaughter of Mrs. Wilfred LaRoche of Salem, N.H., and Mrs. Matthew Many, formerly of Lawrence.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Maloney, 23 Johnson Road, and the grandson of Mrs. Daniel Kiley.

The Rev. Stephen M. Mulkern officiated at the 11 a.m. service at St. Martha's Chapel, Kennebunkport, Maine, and a reception followed at the Port House Inn, Kennebunkport. The church was decorated with delphiniums and Boston ivy, and Bonnie Goodson provided classical guitar music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore her mother's wedding gown of white faille, with a sweetheart neckline, long tapering sleeves and full court train. She carried an arm bouquet of white roses.

Susan LaRoche of Andover attended her sister as maid of honor, and another sister, Joan LaRoche was bridesmaid, while the bride's niece Diedre O'Neil of Andover, was junior bridesmaid. They wore identical gowns of blue and white cotton dimity, with crowns of delphiniums and baby's breath in their hair. They carried bouquets of delphiniums and ivy.

Examining A Dream

Dr. Larry Larsen, president of CLASS, Inc. and Virginia O'Neil, Dean of Students, Merrimack College and CLASS board member, examine drawing of proposed center to be located at Vocational school. The organization is planning a Las Vegas fund raising night to assist in making the center a reality.

CLASS (Citizen League for Adult Special Services) is planning a gala Las Vegas night for Friday, Sept. 29. The evening of music, entertainment and casino games will run from 7 p.m. to 1 a.m. at Joe Binette's Chalet in Middleton.

Entertainment will be provided by Mac's Mob and there will be a "Las Vegas style" show with music from the swing era, the fifties and today's disco beat.

Authentic casino games with professional dealers will also be featured. In addition, there will be a cash bar, and hot and cold hors d'oeuvres will be served.

Tickets are available from CLASS members Bob Mascola, Josie Stella, Diane Wekelo, Rosalie Ruggiero, Virginia O'Neil, Bette Kidwall, Al Gaudet, Harriet Ahouse, Peter Samaris and Pat Recesso.

CLASS is a non-profit agency which sponsors educational and recreational programs for retarded persons eighteen and over in the Greater Lawrence area.

These programs are aimed at helping the retarded adult function more autonomously in the community by enabling him to meet his own needs without depending on others.

Another goal of this organization is to improve the retarded individual's sense of self-worth and having something unique to contribute to society.

Land adjacent to the Regional Vocational Technical High School has been donated to CLASS, and construction is expected to begin next year on a facility to house the special vocational and other programs for the retarded which this organization sponsors.

The Las Vegas Night will benefit the building fund as well as the other services provided by CLASS.

Waves

The water in a wave does not move forward; a wave is communicated agitation. As a wave approaches the shore the lower part is stopped by the land, Massachusetts Audubon notes. The top of the wave continues on, eventually falling over as surf when there is not enough water to hold it up. Surf water moves forward as it falls.

Processing Paths For Industry Sites

With two major industrial buildings on the horizon, Andover officials this week began smoothing the roads for their entrance into the industrial areas.

Selectmen, meeting in special session Monday afternoon, approved a resolution asking the manager to proceed with necessary improvements to River Road, one of the conditions the town must meet to pave the way for a 200,000 square foot plant planned by the Polaroid Corp. in West Andover.

Also, Monday afternoon, the board reviewed a draft of a letter to be sent to state authorities asking that an access road from Route 93 into the Lowell Junction industrial area be expedited.

The River Road improvements have been approved through prior town meeting action and road layouts have been subject of public hearings in the past.

Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark informed selectmen that $225,000 is available for the project through Chapter 90 funds, and that no additional town funding is contemplated.

Polaroid officials announced their intent a week ago to locate their new film assembly plant in the West Andover area owned by Arkwright-Boston Insurance. It will be located near the present site of the Hewlett-Packard plant.

In their meeting with Andover administrators, Polaroid officials set forth certain conditions for the town, the road improvements among them.

Other requests of the town can be met without any major difficulty, it is felt, since water and sewer lines are in the area and sufficient for Polaroid's needs.

Obtaining of permits also appears to be no problem and there is no apparent conflict with any wetlands act provisions in the area where Polaroid wishes to locate.

The need for access roads, both at Lowell Junction and the West Andover industrial site, will be outlined in a letter to state authorities and to be reviewed by the selectmen at their meeting Monday night.

The need for an access road into Lowell Junction from I-93 has been the subject of considerable discussion between local and state officials in recent years.

With continued development in the area, the need becomes more apparent, particularly with the construction of a new 200,000 square foot plant contemplated by Instrumentation Laboratories of Lexington, IL is meeting with department of public works people in Andover to work out agreements on a sewer connection prior to initiating its construction plans.

The industrial development in the area has placed an added traffic burden on Ballardvale, and with the new plant, the problem will only increase.

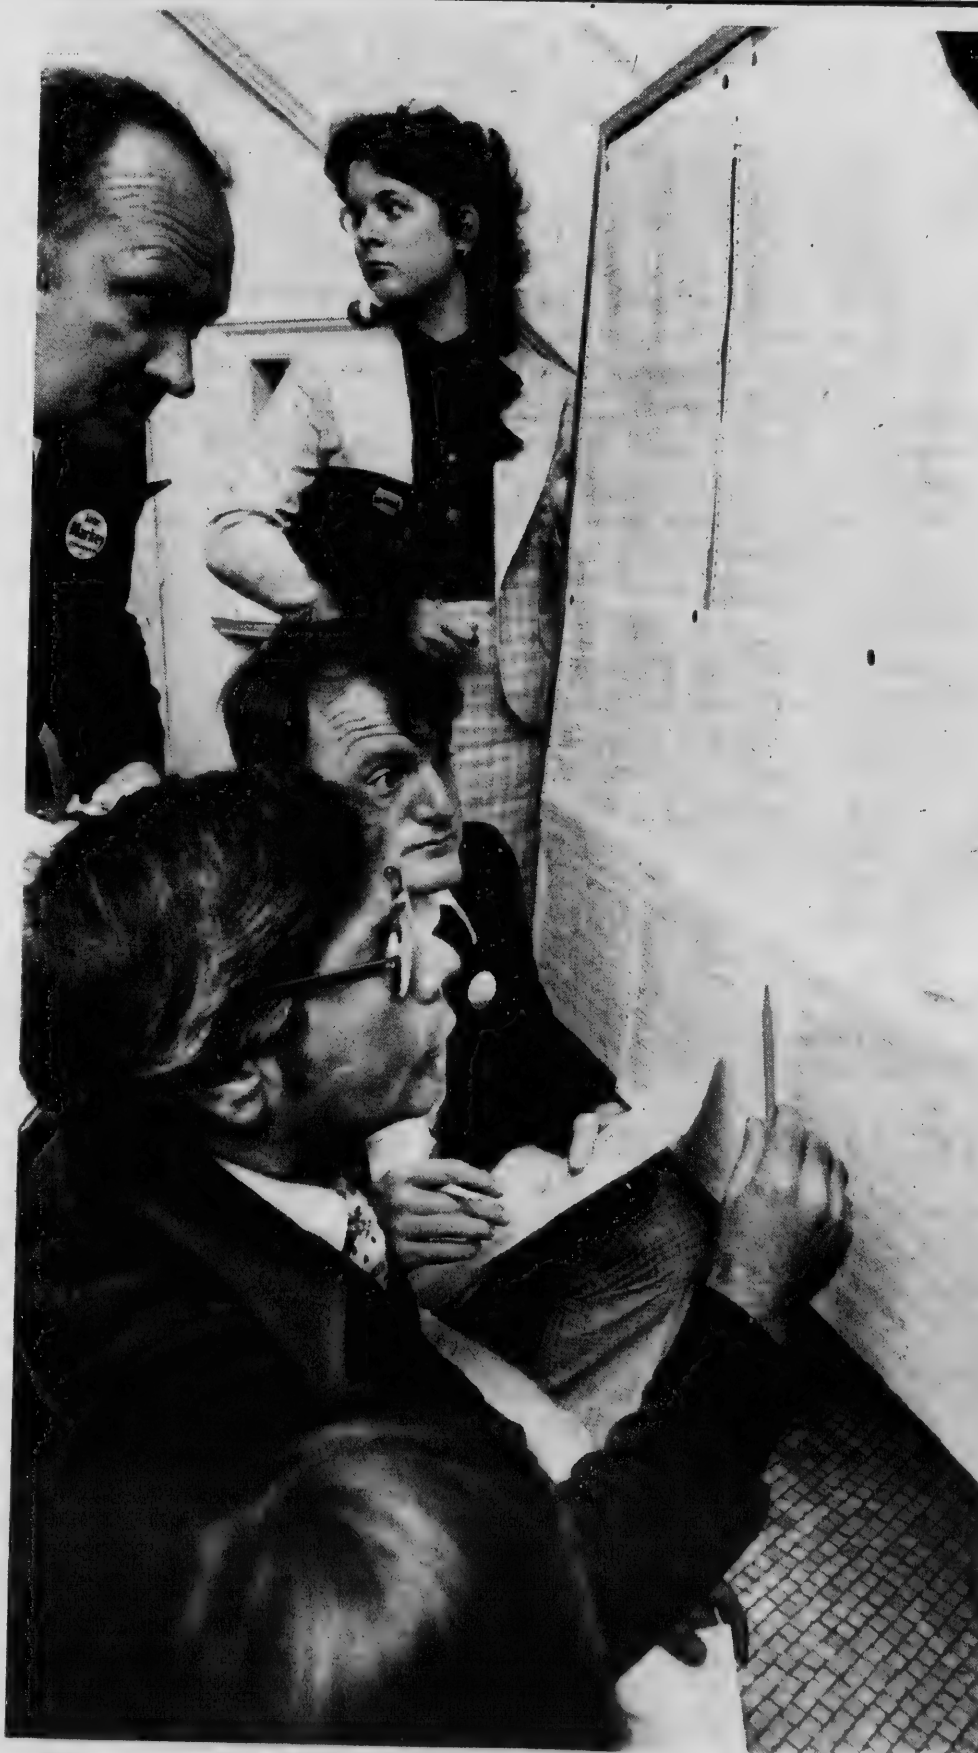

Thus the state and federal highway officials are being asked to take some positive action on development of access road plans.

Also requested is consideration of completion of the clover-leaf at River Road and I-93. This would provide better access to the West Andover industrial area and is a part of the future plans for the highway.

Checking The Returns

Andover election returns, which are traditionally early, brought the usual compliment of workers to the lobby of town hall Tuesday night to get the early line on how their candidate was faring. Frank Brennan, of North Andover, who became unofficial unannouncer as the returns were posted checks over the results, while Joseph Fitzgibbons a Kevin Burke for D. A. worker checks his candidate's totals.

Rec Lodge Funds Put Off To April

Any funds for reconstruction of the lodge at Recreation Park will have to wait until the annual town meeting.

Selectmen this week refused to insert an item in the October meeting warrant for planning funds for the replacement of the lodge which was destroyed by fire this summer.

Town Manager Jared S. a. Clark said he would like to have an article appropriating $10,000 for architectural services. The amount was a reduction of a request by the Department of Community Services for funding of the total reconstruction.

Clark explained that he felt there should be some guidelines as to what the proposed use of the lodge would be. He also said that between insurance funds and money from the town's self-insurance funds, the project could probably be financed.

When asked by Selectman James Abramson why this request came at the last minute, Clark said he had hoped to obtain the funds through a transfer but was advised by the finance committee that with a town meeting so close, that route should be followed.

Abramson said he felt he and the board should have a chance to discuss the lodge replacement at more length and also that the townspeople should have a more definite idea of the total cost of replacement and proposed use.

Clark said he had asked the recreation committee members to come up with proposed use of the building. The committee has been holding public meetings on the subject in an effort to learn what the town desires from the lodge reconstruction.

Selectman agreed to allow Clark to seek $2,000 from the finance committee to "scope out" the project between now and the annual town meeting next April.

Alternatives Sought For Library Service

An article in the October town meeting will ask voters to provide $30,000 for renovation of the old pumping station at Haggetts Pond for use by the state regional library service.

Town Manager Jared S.A. Clark asked the selectmen to place the item in the warrant in order to allow him to offer alternatives to library officials when he meets with them later this month.

The regional library service, located in the theater building on Essex street, is to be moved out due to a relocation of town offices.

Clark told selectmen Monday that the alternatives to the Essex street location to be offered the regional service include the old pumping station building, Cardinal Cushing gymnasium and possibly some place in the water treatment plant.

The manager said while there is room in the treatment plant, there is the possibility that the facility would have to undergo expansion in five years, thus the regional library would be faced with a move again.

The pumping station is the most permanent facility that can be offered the regional authorities, he said.

The service pays $9,000 rent to the town, thus there would be some recovery over a period of years.

New Found Wealth And The Five Year Plan

Recent events in the industrial development picture are casting a brighter hue on the town's tax base, which we would hope will not lead to an over confidence as we look to our economic future.

Within the past few weeks, two major firms, Instrumentation Laboratories and Polaroid Corp., have indicated their interest in locating new plants in Andover.

Town officials are currently in the process of meeting the guidelines set up by the industrial administrators, and it would appear there should be no impediments to their becoming neighbors here.

Within a reasonable period of time, the new construction will result in a substantial jump in tax revenue for the town.

What will be needed once this happens, is a continuance of sound financial planning, the continued examination of capital expenditures to determine need and timeliness.

What could result immediately from the increased revenue, along with more from a proposed $2.75 million expansion of Cressey-Dockham wholesale food warehouse in Lowell Junction, is an easing of the burden to be placed on the town by new school construction.

In the planning stages at the moment is the renovation of East Junior High and possible construction of an auditorium-classroom building at the Shawsheen Road secondary school campus.

This will come before voters at next year's annual town meeting at a potential cost of $10 million.

The industrial growth can give some taxpayer assist to this major project, much of it considered an absolute necessity.

While this project seems a foregone conclusion, we would hope that the increased revenue does not give rise to increased demand for additional municipal services or freedom to spend.

During the past year, local administrators worked on a five year capital budget plan, slotting various projects to meet a tax revenue forecast.

It might be wise to make it virtually mandatory that the town adhere to the basic five year plan in its thinking, despite the possibility of some increased funds.

Tendency could be to possibly move a project up a year or two, with improved tax base.

But, we would suggest, it would be more beneficial to residential and industrial taxpayers alike to make a concerted effort toward stabilizing the tax rate.

Andover planned well to attract new industry to its two areas zoned specifically for that purpose. Investments, through town meeting action to develop utilities, funding road improvements, etc. to produce inducement to good, clean industry to consider Andover as an address, is paying off.

What Andover should do now, is continue on the path of good financial planning, providing a stabilized tax rate, even looking to the day when the annual levy might decrease, an almost unheard of phenomena.

Such a prospect is pleasing to think about, not only for the residential taxpayer, but for the industrial tenant as well.

JACK ANDERSON WITH JOE SPEAR WEEKLY SPECIAL

Though Dan Flood Was Indicted Friends Say He Won't Falter

WASHINGTON—Favors are part of a politician's stock-in-trade. He is expected to produce government jobs, public works projects and government contracts for the people he represents. All of these federal blessings can be arranged within the constraints of the law and ethics.

The people at home are supposed to be grateful and show their appreciation at the ballot box. The congressman, in his turn, can express his gratitude to the government agencies by supporting their appropriations.

It is sometimes a clumsy system, a throwback to the less artful days of government. But it seems to work.

Rep. Dan Flood, D-Pa., is skilled in the intricacies of this system. As evidence, his hometown of Wilkes-Barre is dotted with monuments to his ability to deliver the spoils.

Within its boundaries are a Daniel J. Flood industrial park, a Daniel J. Flood elderly center, a Daniel J. Flood rural health center and a Daniel J. Flood elementary school. They are a measure of his exaltation, like the jewels proffered an oriental monarch.

But Flood hasn't always been content to await a new Daniel J. Flood facility. We began reporting in October 1972 that he sometimes traded favors for cash. We wrote that his office was "deeply involved in fixing contracts." We identified his top assistant, Stephen Elko, as his bagman.

There was no set price for Flood's benevolence. Like a doctor or lawyer, he allegedly charged what he felt the petitioner could afford to pay.

Two years ago, we reported that evidence of Flood's financial finagling had been turned over to the House Ethics Committee. Then the Justice Department began investigating. Finally, the bagman, Stephen Elko, began singing to the prosecutors.

Last week, Flood was indicted by a federal grand jury on three counts of perjury. He was accused of lying about the payoffs he allegedly received.

It was a sad day for Wilkes-Barre, where he is a hero. But the gloom apparently hasn't affected Dan Flood. He is the House's most flamboyant member. He sports a pencil-thin waxed mustache. His suits are elegantly tailored. He resembles an aging vaudeville actor and performs as if he were constantly on stage.

Those who know him say there will be no whimpering. At age 74, his step may not be as jaunty as it used to be. But his waxed mustache is bristling with indignation. He hasn't lost his flair. His friends promise that he will give the jury a show.

Sweeten the Pot: Americans have a sweet-tooth weakness, a national addiction to sugar. It is found in almost everything we eat. Children are weaned on sugar from the time they begin eating their candy-coated breakfast cereals.

This has created a booming market for the sugar producers. But they are still not happy. The sugar daddies complain that they are not making enough profit. They are victims, they say, of inflation and competition.

So the producers want Congress to give them some relief. The sugar lobbyists are working the backrooms of Congress, seeking an increase in federal sugar subsidies.

The White House is opposed. President Carter's economists point out that the measure would cost consumers more than $1 billion a year. They have the support of Rep. Charles Vanik, D-Ohio. He took the trouble of ordering a study on sugar profits. The General Accounting Office discovered that the industry's profits are cyclic.

In 1974, for example, the industry earned a staggering $1.5 billion. Now the profits are down a little. So the producers want the taxpayers to make up the difference, so they can continue to live in the manner to which they have become accustomed.

Master Spy: William Colby used to be the director of the Central Intelligence Agency. He was supposed to be a master spy, who could see without being seen. Apparently, he is now using his skills in civilian life.

Last June, a Maryland

woman named Sheila Gearhart filed a lawsuit against Colby and other officials. She is the widow of Daniel Gearhart, an American who was executed by guerrillas in Angola in 1976. The widow charges in her suit that her husband was lured into Angola by a clandestine CIA propaganda program.

But it took several days for federal marshals to serve the complaint on Colby. On the first visit, a marshal knocked on Colby's door, but no one answered. The marshal's notes state that someone "came to the window and moved the curtain (but) didn't come to the door."

Three days later, the marshal tried again. This time he heard a dog bark and saw someone at the window. But there was no response to his knock. He finally served the complaint on Colby's wife the next day.

"I can't explain it," Colby told us. He said the person in his home could have been his daughter or mother-in-law, either of whom would have been reluctant to open the door when a stranger knocked.

Watch on Waste: The Navy has spent $600,000 for metal suits designed to protect workers from microwave radiation. But the suits are hot, heavy and cumbersome, and workers are refusing to wear them. Apparently, they would rather take their chances with the microwaves.

Think "back". Your body hangs from your back and when it's out of line, you're out of whack! It's where tension lands, flab collects and poor posture sticks out like a protruding tummy, flabby rear, bulgy bra, and lumpy waist. So take time every day to back up. Stop and S-T-R-E-T-C-H! Twist your shoulders from side to side with hands on hips. No moving hips on this one! Clasp hands behind back, feet apart, head down. Bend and breath out while bringing arms up high. Count to six and hold. Come up slowly and repeat. You can feel the tension disappear.

Mighty Effort

Warrior David Nardone gave it his all Saturday, as Wakefield player scrambles to pick up a few more yards. Andover lost the opener 7-0.

Warriors Lose Opener 7-0

By Ben Bram
Andover High School

The Andover High School Golden Warrior football team was beaten by the Wakefield High School team Saturday afternoon by the score of 7-0. The 970 spectators who paid to see the game at Eugene V. Lovely field certainly got their money's worth. Although the Warriors lost, the game was close throughout with an exciting finish.

Wakefield beat the hometown team with a straight-forward running attack that highlighted junior backs, Jim Taschetta and James Brown. Taschetta, the left halfback, ran the ball 17 times for 101 yards.

Brown, a big fullback on offense and a tackle on defense, ran 13 times for 67 yards, including the only touchdown of the game, a three-yard run just before the end of the first half. Barry Jensen kicked the extra point.

Wakefield ran on 53 of their 55 offensive plays which accounted for all of their 234 yards.

The visitors had a significant statistical advantage in time of possession. Andover controlled the ball for twelve minutes and sixteen seconds, while Wakefield had it for twenty-seven minutes and forty-four seconds.

Andover head coach Dick Collins summed up the game simply by saying, "We were beaten by a better team." He also mentioned what the statistics clearly point out, "The best way to stop our offense is to keep the ball away from us."

The Andover offense did have its chances, but it failed to capitalize. Six times the Warriors had the ball in the visitor's territory and each time they came up empty-handed.

Their first big chance came early in the second quarter when Wakefield's quarterback, Gerry Sardella, attempted a quarterback sneak on fourth and two-feet at the Wakefield 49 yardline. The charged-up Andover defense stopped him at the line of scrimmage.

However, an interception by Brown regained the ball for Wakefield at their own 33 yardline. They then ran the ball 67 yards down the field for a touchdown. Barry Jensen made the one point conversion. The key play in the drive was a pass interference penalty against Andover (one of only two passes attempted by Wakefield). The play gave them a first down on the Andover 25 yard-line. Six plays later, Brown bulled his way into the end zone from three yards out.

During the third quarter, junior defensive linemen Joe Lahood blocked a punt at the Wakefield 37. After junior halfback Melvin Berger sprinted around the end for seven yards, the Andover drive was stopped by a penalty and two incomplete passes.

The Warriors had another opportunity in the fourth period when Silva connected on passes to Paul Farnham, Mark DeFranco, and Bill Lucey for 16, 18, and 14 yards respectively. The Warriors needed only 31 yards to score and the hometown crowd was standing in anticipation, but it was not to be. Wakefield's defense rose to the occasion once again. Silva was sacked for a loss of 13 yards and on the next play Mark Roberto intercepted a pass intended for Berger.

However, Wakefield could not move the ball and had to punt. It was a short punt and it dropped dead at the Wakefield forty-six yardline. After an incomplete pass, Silva was sacked again, this time he fumbled. Brown, who played very well on both offense and defense, made the sack. The Andover tri-captain was removed from the game with a separated shoulder. He may not be able to play quarterback next week at Tewksbury but it is possible that he may handle the kicking chores.

With 2:27 left in the game, Wakefield began a drive that took them to the Andover 11, where on a first and five Wakefield fumbled. Tri-captain Len Driscoll charged through the line to recover the fumble at the 13 yardline.

Second string quarterback Tom Walsh trotted on the field to lead the Warriors' final charge. On a third and ten, with twelve seconds left, he threw a 28-yard pass to Farnham, who was cutting across the middle. On the last play of the game, Walsh tossed a lateral to Farnham, who hit DeFranco at the Wakefield 38 as the clock ran out.

Although the Warriors lost, many individuals played well. All-League end Paul Farnham and his counterpart at the other end, Mark DeFranco contributed stellar performances. Each had four receptions for 56 (Farnham) and 55 yards (DeFranco). Fullback Ray Lynch was playing well on both sides of the field before leaving the game with a rib injury. Big Ed Reming was the one consistent performer on the defensive line. Linebackers Len Driscoll, Eddie Collins, and Dave Nardone made many key tackles. Driscoll broke up one pass, recovered a key fumble, and led the team with six unassisted tackles. Nardone led the team with fifteen total tackles.

The Warriors must prepare to face Tewksbury next week in the Redmen's new stadium. As always, Tewksbury will be a tough opponent and Andover will have to get good performances from the whole team, especially the defensive line to win.

Andover Booters Start Strong

The Andover High School Varsity soccer team got off to a flying start this year by shutting out its first two opponents by identical scores of 2-0.

In the season opener Andover came out and scored in the first period on an improved Tewksbury field. Tri-Captain John Kinsky notched the first goal of the season after a corner kick by junior Dave Schroeder. Andover took control of the game in the second period on a fine headed goal by Tri-Captain Gary Cohen after a perfect play was set up by John Kinsky who sent a fine pass in front of the Tewksbury goal for Cohen to redirect with his head. Morgan the Tewksbury Goalie managed to get one hand on it after a fine drive but could not bat it away, and he ended up trapping it just behind the goal post for an Andover score. In the third period, Tewksbury came on strong but the defense was equal to the task with the senior trio of Andy Powell, Greg Moss and Dan Merrigan as well as Junior Bob Wilkins turning back all efforts. Goalie Jeff Nicastro needed the help of the cross bar on one threat as the Tewksbury striker broke in alone and Jeff came out fast to cut down the angle, the striker blasted a shot at the net which glanced off the cross bar and sailed out of play much to Andover's relief. Nicastro played a fine game registering the first shutout. Rusty Serbagi was kicked in the foot during the

THE TOWNSMAN, SEPTEMBER 21, 1978

By She Livermore

Although rain had been predicted, the sun shone down on most of the games played on Saturday, as the Andover Soccer Association's fall program got underway. With 44 teams in play, the name of the game was to learn the skills, have lots of fun and get some healthy exercise.

Incidentally, the Varsity teams have started their fall schedule and if you want to see some really good soccer in Andover, watch their games, either at the High School (Senior) or West Elementary (Junior).

Brief results of last week's games follow:

Division 1 (Blue) — Grades 3/4 Boys Panthers 3 — Lions 1

The Panthers dominated the play in the first quarter and Booth Kyle scored. The Lions met the challenge in the second quarter and Chris DiClemente's goal evened up the score. The Panthers were awarded a penalty kick in the final quarter, successfully completed by Cameron Deery, and when Tim Higgins scored, they won the victory 3-1. ESB: Paul Davies, Eric Shirazi, Lukas Wennik (Panthers) as well as Jordan Burgess, Jeff DiDonato, Eric Jedrzejek, John Shaw (Lions).

first period of the game and had to leave the action. Midfielders Ketzler, Brandt, and price play stront games in the winning effort.

Friday afternoon, Andover held its home opener hosting Wilmington last year's second place team. Andover was not a good host as Wilmington had a 2-0 loss pinned on its record when it left. Andover dominated the first half with the ball seldom getting out of Wilmington's end. But with this territorial domination very few good shots were aimed at the Wilmington net. One exception to this was a fine hustling play by Cohen who tracked down the ball after everyone else thought it would go out and pulled back a perfect pass to left wing Rusty Serbagi who had slipped in front of the Wilmington net unguarded and all he had to do was tuck the ball home and Andover had a 1-0 lead.

Powell, Moss, Merrigan and Wilkins were again outstanding, and in the second half because of the renewed effort by Wilmington he was called on to make some excellent saves and came up with them each time. He punched the ball clear on a corner kick and made some gutsy moves in heavy traffic in front of the goal. Steve Rosen and Steve Luby both did a fine job

Leopards 4 — Bears 1

The Bears played a spirited game but they could not quite overcome the Leopard's strong offensive tactics, which enabled them to score the extra goals (good goal tending held them to four). Matthew Alden, Jamie Mackay and David Penney scored the goals for the Leopards, while Chris Frothingham scored for the Bears. ESB: Derek Bobeck, James Saalfrank (Leopards) as well as Matt Sanborn, James O'Hara (Bears).

Tigers 2 — Bobcats 2

The Bobcats played strong in the first quarter and Mike Moriarty and Scott Wallace each scored a goal to put them in the lead. The Tigers anxious to even it up, worked hard and in the fourth quarter accomplished their objective when Scott Brink scored on a pass from C. J. Kolaski, who subsequently booted one in himself on a pass from Mark Kubas and Alan Sillars. ESB: Matt Corbett and Billy Andrews (Tigers).

(Gold) Cougars 6 — Pumas 3

The Pumas weren't as successful at scoring goals as the Cougars, although they played a great game and many many good shots on the nets. The first quarter was scoreless but after Mark Neaves scored the first of his three goals for the selling the senior midfielders and junior striker Tom Wiseman had a glittering chance as he broke in alone on the goalkeeper. He was knocked flat but his shot whistled within one foot of the goal post and Wilmington was lucky. The final score came close to the end of the game, as Gary Cohen took a pass from David Yates and while being heavily defended by the center back released a shot that caught the goalkeeper by surprise as he didn't think anyone could get a shot off under those circumstances. He made a fine dive but the ball was in the back of the net before he reached its point of entry. Tri-Captain Tom Keeffe played a very strong game against Wilmington as his hustle all over the field broke up some of the opposition's chances and created some of the Andover opportunities.

This week will be a very interesting one for Andover as the varsity travels to Austin on Wednesday, and the J.V.'s travel there on Thursday. Then Saturday morning Andover hosts Methuen at the high school field. The J.V. game will be at 9 a.m. with the varsity at 10:15 a.m. The big rival Billerica comes to Andover the following Monday to start the first three-game week and they will be followed by an away game at Lawrence, and a home game against Chelmsford on Sept. 30. That will take care of seven of the eight games on the first half of the schedule.

Pumas early in the second quarter, the Cougars evened it up and went on to score five additional goals before the final whistle. Stephen Redgate scored four of the goals (one on a pass from Andy Lascher) and Chris Gully and Ronnie Forbes each scored one. ESB: Billy Martin, Eddie Sheehan (Cougars) as well as Scott Plamondon, David Vickers (Pumas).

Rams 6 — Foxes 1

The Rams scored their first goal almost immediately after the game started when Nick Coon booted one in on a pass from Matt Murphy. They kept up the pressure, forcing the Foxes to play a defensive game, and scored five additional goals (Geoff Bolan, Matt Murphy, Nick Coon). The spirited Foxes only goal was booted in by tim Smth on a pass from Rajiv Sheel. ESB: David Sorrie, Geoff Bolan (Rams).

Jaquars 7 — Wolves 1

The Jaquars played a very strong offensive game against the Wolves who found their goal area being assaulted on numerous occasions throughout the game. The Wolves worked hard to minimize the loss but could not prevent the Jaquars scoring seven goals before the final whistle (Jamie O'Brien, Kyle McCabe and Joey Seely). Josh Malitsky scored for the Wolves.

Division 2 — Grades 3/5 Girls Sharks 4 — Marlin 2

The Sharks dominated most of the play and only good defensive action, as well as great goal tending by Hallie Keene and Cheryl Hunt held them to a two goal victory. The Marlin's goals both achieved on long breakaway ruins were scored by Beth Heydt and Julie Boland.

Stingray 1 — Barracuda 0

The Stingrays won the victory in the closing moments when Jennifer Surratt scored the only goal in a very exciting

Swim Meet Awards

Recently a one-hour swim meet was sponsored by the Cudell Masters of Cleveland, Ohio. Master swimmers who entered swam for exactly one hour and recorded their total distance in their area pools. All the results were then sent in to the Cleveland Association and a final tally was taken.

Three master swimmers from the Andover YMCA did very well. Bob Wright took a first in the 55-59 age group by swimming a total of 3200 yds. Richard Hahn swimming in the 35-39 age group also took a first, swimming 3900 yds., and Ed Ratyna, swimming in the same age bracket, took a second swimming 3600 yds.

Starts Against Yale

Brown University opens up its 100th football season at home against Yale on Sept. 23rd in a game to be regionally televised by ABC.

Do not be surprised to see former Andover High star Mark Farnham, Brown junior from Andover, on center stage.

The Yale-Brown game takes on added significance in view of recent results. Each team is 15-3 over the last two years; in 1976 Brown won 14-6 and Brown and Yale finished tied for first; in 1977 Yale bested Brown 10-9 and finished first by one game. This year Brown is the consensus favorite for league honors with Yale recognized as the prime contender.

Farnham, at 5'9", 170 lbs, is a returning starter at split end and last year led the Ivy League in receptions with 24. Head football coach John Anderson believes "Mark is even better at this stage than his brother Bob, great speed, hands, and runs disciplined pass routes. He should win first team all-league honors this year." The Brown offensive line returns four out of six starters and combined with three backfield starters is expected to utilize the complete multiple offense of Coach Anderson. Last year's offense depended on a veteran defense (6th nationally in total defense), to keep Brown in the games and after a disappointing 2-2 start the offense was able to lead Brown to five straight wins down the stretch. This year the offense is expected to continue that streak and take the pressure off a defense that must replace six starters and with men like Mark Farnham hauling in the passes, the prospects look good.

Receiver coach Ray Tellier says "Mark is a pleasure to coach; he never complains, never gets tired or hurt and always seems eager to improve his technique." Mark spends his time away from football starring on the Brown lacrosse team and pursuing a liberal arts degree in Sociology.

game. Both teams were evenly matched and had made several attempts to boot in that elusive goal throughout the play; good defensive tactics and alert goal tending thwarted their efforts. ESB: Dona Leitch, Caroline Pool (Stingray) as well as Cynthea Flynn, Cindy Porter and Jody Reck (Barracuda).

Division 3 (Gold) — Grades 5/6 Boys Hawks 4 — Falcons 2

The Hawks were the victors in a well played game with the Falcons who made some good shots on the Hawks nets but were only successful twice due to some fine goal keeping by Glenn Livermore and Mike Melia. The Hawks offensive line were more successful in their attempts to score and booted in four goals (Chris Casey, one on a pass from David Cox, Neal Weaver on a pass from Chris Comparato and Chris Comparato direct in the final seconds of the game!). ESB: Peter Quintal (Hawks) as well as John Drake and Fran Sullivan (Falcons).

There are 9 million boats and 50 million persons engaged in recreational boating in the U.S., the U.S. Coast Guard says.

Ravens 3 — Eagles 2
The Ravens took an early lead when John Marocco scored. Both teams worked hard to control the ball and when Matt Ostrowski gained possession of it, he evened up the score when he booted the ball into the Ravens nets. The Ravens scored again twice (Danny Moynihan and Mike Morris) and whilst Barry Tucker was able to score for the Eagles in the final quarter, they were still one down at the final whistle. ESB: Mark Asgerisson, Russell Lowe, Craig Sorrie, Matt Ostrowski (Eagles).

(Blue) Owls 4 — Gulls 2

Playing with several members missing the Owls were leading 3-1 at the end of the first half, all three goals being booted in by Eric Sanborn, on passes from Tom Bride, Paul Hevehan and David Casanave.

They were awarded a penalty kick in the fourth quarter, successfully completed by Tom Bride and whilst the Gulls scored another goal towards the end of the game, they were still two down at the final whistle. ESB: Eric Neyman, David Casanave, Paul Hevehan (Owls).

Orioles 3 — Buzzards 1

The Buzzards scored early in the game when David Keene booted one in on a pass from Gage Perry. The Orioles worked hard to even it up, which they did when Bruce Lane scored on a pass from Jeff Kennedy. The Buzzards maintained the pressure but could not overcome the tactics of defensive players Ray Reed, Brian Novelline, Bob Foley and Jeff Hartley, who blocked their many attempts to score. The Orioles offensive line penetrated the Buzzards goal area and Bruce Lane booted in two more goals to win the victory 3-1. ESB: Gage Perry, Larry Aiello (Buzzards).

Division 4 — Grades 6/9 Girls

Appollos 1 — Rangers 0

The Appollos were the victors in a game which remained scoreless until the second quarter when Doreen DeNitto booted in a goal 15' from the right of the nets on a pass from Kelly Shannon. The Rangers made many good attempts to score, all blocked by alert goal tenders Kelly Shannon and Kathy Neaves. ESB: Saramichelle Sapuppo, Maura Keegan (Appollos) as well as Sally Bickerton, Julie Kinsky, Jennifer Smith (Rangers).

Caribous 1 — Whitecaps 2

Although neither team scored in the first two quarters, they certainly worked hard to gain possession of the ball and control it. The Whitecaps scored twice in the third quarter (Michelle Poisson, one on a pass from Sandra Cookson) and the Caribous scored once in the final quarter (Susan Bradford on a pass from Beth Murphy, Robin Colombosian and Alyssa McCabe). ESB: Laura Foley, Michelle Poisson (Whitecaps) as well as Beth Luciano, Susan Bradford (Caribous).

Division 5 — Grades 7/9 Boys

Metros 1 — Stompers 1

The Stompers dominated most of the play and made numerous assaults on the Metros goal area; brilliant defensive play by fullbacks Dan Boland and Scott Arnold, as well as superior goal tending by Todd Lockwood held them to one goal scored by Ken Heydt on a pass from Peter Surrette. The Metros offensive line eventually gained control of the ball and Zack Apgar's goal on a pass from Mark Edgar made it a tie game. ESB: Ken Heydt, Gordon Hannah, Steve Carbone (Stompers) as well as the entire Metros team.

Registration is open through Oct. 4 at meeting place.

Lancers 1 — Sockers 0

The first half remained scoreless with both teams working hard for control of the ball; several attempts were made to score but good defensive play and alert goal tending, denied all efforts. The Lancers won the victory in the second half when Paul Thoday scored the only goal in a most exciting game. ESB: Steve McDowell, Paul Thoday, Ken Crawford, Scott West (Lancers) as well as John Thompson, David Collins, Peter Bradford, Danny Kimball (Sockers).

Tornadoes 2 — Roughnecks 2

After a scoreless first half during which goalies Dan Prestia and Adam Wise made some brilliant saves, David Souter booted the ball into the Roughnecks nets on a pass from Alvin Ohlenbusch. The Roughnecks evened it up when Ken Flynn made a breakaway pass picked up by Jeff Curley who took the ball from the center line to the Tornadoes goal area and made a quick pass to Chris Egan who scored. John Nardoza scored for the Roughnecks on a pass from Chris Egan and Greg Batten made it a tie game when he scored off a brilliant pass from David Souter. ESB: Tom Bolduc (Tornadoes) as well as Dan Poore, Rob Retelle (Roughnecks).

Handicapped Swim Classes To Begin

Swimming classes for pre-schoolers with all types of physical disabilities will resume on Friday, Sept. 22 at the Phillip's Academy Pool. Tim Stentiford, 8 Cedar St., North Reading, is volunteer chairman of the program.

This specially designed Easter Seal swim program is held every Friday morning from 10 to 11 a.m. through Nov. 10. The children, of pre-school age, come by referral from several other agencies, such as the United Cerebral Palsy Association, Clinical Nurseries, and Visiting Nurse Associations. Diagnosis include cerebral palsy, spina bifida, developmental retardation, spinal injury, epilepsy, and multiple handicaps. Medical approval is required for the participation of each child.

Leola Potash, a certified handicapped swim instructor, will direct the program which includes instruction in basic skills as well as recreation. The volunteer swim aides are students at North Reading High School. Release time from classes is granted on the basis of grades. Aides are assigned on a one-to-one permanent basis, so that a trusting relationship can be established between the aide and the young swimmer. Further information on the program may be obtained from the Easter Seal Society regional office at 2 Railroad St., Andover.

Wilson's program of light classics, show tunes and theme songs from recent motion pictures includes: Knightsbridge (from London Suite) (1933) — Eric Coates; Windsor Melody — Noel Gay; Saga of the North (Valse Triste — Jean Sibelius; Nocturne (Opus 45, No. 4) — Edvard Grieg; In the Hall of the Mountain King (from Peer Gynt Suite No. 1) — Edvard Grieg; Finlandia, Opus 26 — Jean Sibelius; Music: (Tongue in Cheek) March (from "The Love of Three Oranges") — Serge Prokofiev; Polka (from the Ballet "The Golden Age") — Dimitri Shostakovich; The Clown — Dimitri Kabalevsky; Love Songs (In my Garden — Idabelle Firestone; If I Could Tell You — Idabelle Firestone); Gaiete Parisienne (Ballet) — Jacques Offenbach; Hollywood; Its Epics (Introduction (Space Odyssey: 2001) — Richard Strauss; Tara's Theme (Gone with the Wind) — Max Steiner; March (Star Wars) — John Williams; Theme (Lawrence of Arabia — Maurice Jarre; Theme (King of Kings) — Miklos Rozsa); The Lilt of Paris (Paree — Jose Padilla; April in Paris — Vernon Duke; — A Man and a Woman — Francis Lai; Loves of the Poet — Charles Trenet; I Love Paris — Cole Porter); The Sensuous Sounds of Spain (Espana Waltz — Emmanuel Chabrier; La Virgen De La Macarena — Bernadino Monterde; Bolero (1927) — Maurice Ravel); Venetian Boat Song No. 1 — Felix Mendelssohn; Bacchanale (Ballet: The Seasons) — Alexander

The proceeds of this concert will be added to a fund established to award scholarships to area graduating high school seniors who plan to major in music at college. Five such scholarships have been awarded since 1974 by the Youth Committee of the Music Hall Board of Trustees. The anticipated financial addition to the fund principal, resulting in greater interest earnings, will allow the award of scholarships of higher dollar value or multiple scholarships.

The Music Hall is located at 192 Broadway (Route 28), just south of Methuen Square, and is available for civic and cultural events. The Hall can be rented with or without the organ for recitals or other events. Write P.O. Box 463, Methuen, Mass. 01844.

Next Friday evening, Oct. 6, the 1978 Fall Series of Variety Music continues with Brian Jones, piano and organ. And then continuing the series, the Trustees present George Butler, organ, and Ivar Sjostrom, piano, on October 13; Andover Choral Society, Oct. 20 and the Righteous Jazz Band, Oct. 27.

Waves

The water in a wave does not move forward; a wave is communicated agitation. As a wave approaches the shore the lower part is stopped by the land, Massachusetts Audubon notes. The top of the wave continues on, eventually falling over as surf when there is not enough water to hold it up. Surf water moves forward as it falls.

VACATION HOUSE & TAX DEFERMENT

Among the benefits of being a homeowner are the unique tax advantages available. One of them to be wary of is the provision which allows you to defer paying income tax on any profit made from the sale of your home if you buy a more expensive one within a certain amount of time. It does not apply in all cases.

For example, if you sell a vacation home at a $2,000 profit and promptly buy a much more expensive place, can you defer paying the income tax on the profit? The answer is no!

This tax break is available only when both the house sold and the house purchased serve as your principle residence. A vacation house doesn't qualify. However, if you owned the dwelling for more than the required time to allow the profit to be taxed as long term capital gains (nine months during calendar year 1977 and one year after that), the $2,000 profit would only be taxed at half the normal rate.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at THE HOWE AGENCY, 4 Pynchard Ave., Andover. Phone: 475-5100. We're here to help.

Are you overlooking an extraordinary way of life?

These people are.

They're residents of Millpond. An extraordinary community of contemporary townhomes in historic North Andover.

At Millpond, a firm regard for the traditions of the past exists side by side with a healthy respect for the joys of modern living.

Take the townhomes themselves. Like the land they occupy, they are bold, rugged, and natural on the outside. Gracious, expansive, and fully convenient on the inside.

There are tennis courts here. A swimming pool. A private beach and boat dock on historic Stevens Pond.

There are nature trails. And ski trails. And riding paths. All on 22 of the most beautiful acres of New England countryside you've ever seen.

The Millpond lifestyle begins at $78,800. Why not come out sometime, and take a careful look at this carefully planned community.

To get here, take Rt. 495 to the Mass. Avenue exit (North Andover). Turn left on 125, and one-half mile later, turn right on Pleasant St. Millpond is one-quarter mile down, on Stevens Pond. From Rt. 128, take 95 North to Exit 15 (Rt. 125 to North Andover). At 114/125, turn left. Bear right at first traffic light, staying on 125. Turn right on Pleasant St., about 1 1/2 miles down. Millpond is a quarter of a mile away.

Mediators Enter Dispute

Andover school administrators, Teamsters Union Local 380, and the school committee, continue to await the start of mediation in their contract dispute.

The two groups reached an impasse last month and asked the State Board of Conciliation and Arbitration for mediation.

While the two sides have agreed on an overall percentage increase for the next three years, the point of impasse is distribution of the increases, or how much should be given to whom.

Local President Philip Wormwood says the question of parity was developed with the last contract, and the current issue is adjustment of the administrators' pay so they're receiving a fair amount in relationship to each other.

The Teamsters are the lone bargaining unit which started the school year without a contract, and Joseph Finn is representing the school committee in the negotiations.

Contracts for the custodians and food service workers may be reopened by Oct. 15. Both of those agreements expire next June 30.

Opera Contest

New England Conservatory of Music has received a grant from the Rockefeller Foundation to hold an Opera competition for American composers of Opera.

Besides a $500 cash prize for its composer, the winning entry will be given a fully staged premiere by the New England Conservatory Opera Theater in May 1979. The composer will also receive $500 to defray the cost of a week in residence in Boston prior to the opera's performance. Second prize is $3000; third prize is $1500.

First prize will be awarded on the basis of the opera's artistic merit and general appropriateness for performance by the NEC Opera Theater. Entries will be judged by members of the New England

Conservatory faculty in conjunction with an independent advisory panel.

A National Highway Traffic Safety Administration report estimates that 200,000 lives have been saved since the Safety Act of 1966, which began the chain of safety improvements in our passenger cars.
